

Welcome Home Dr. Burke!

Meet Rachel Burke, D.O., family practice physician at Great Works Family Practice, and member of York Hospital's Medical Staff and Department of Medicine.

Dr. Burke received her bachelor's degree from Bowdoin College in Brunswick, Maine and went on to receive her doctor of osteopathic medicine degree from the University of New England College of Osteopathic Medicine in Biddeford, Maine. Dr. Burke has been practicing in the Biddeford area for the last four years (as Dr. Rachel Garrett) and is happy to be coming back to the York area. She has close ties here as she grew up in York and graduated from York High School.

Dr. Burke joined David Yarian, MD, Peter Leavitt, MD, Joseph Martinez, MD, Christine Munroe, DO and Rita Pomerleau, FNP at Great Works Family Practice, an affiliate of York Hospital with offices in South Berwick and Berwick. She is currently accepting patients. Please call Great Works Family Practice at 207 384-9212 for more information.
