

“I WANT TO KNOW TODAY.”

“When I have my yearly mammogram, I want to know the results right then and there. The waiting is very worrisome.”

Waiting for your mammogram results can be frightening for many. But at York Hospital, waiting is now a thing of the past. York Hospital is happy to announce the opening of Breast Care Diagnostics, Answers & Guidance. Here, our staff utilizes the latest technology in digital mammography and ultrasound to assure you the fastest results possible. Medical Director and fellowship-trained breast radiologist Kira Wendorf, MD, is on-site and available to go over results with you within moments of your exam. The center is also home to dedicated nurses and expert technologists to help you navigate through evaluation and treatment needs or to answer any questions you may have.

Breast Care Diagnostics, Answers & Guidance.
