

WHEN can I get a COVID-19 Vaccine in Maine?

This timeline, subject to change, is based on guidelines from the U.S. and Maine CDC as of: 1/25/2021

WHEN « DEC 2020 » JAN 2021 » FEB » MAR » APRIL » MAY » JUNE » JULY » AUG »

WHO

PHASE 1A

IN PRIORITY ORDER,
STARTING DECEMBER 2020:

- Health care personnel in front line positions;
- Emergency first responders (EMTs);
- Residents and staff of long term care facilities;
- Other First Responders and public safety personnel such as firefighters, police, law enforcement and corrections officers;
- Critical COVID-19 personnel working on pandemic response (COVID testers, researchers, makers of PPE, testing and vaccine materials, etc.).

PHASE 1B

IN PRIORITY ORDER,
STARTING FEBRUARY 2021:

- Residents age 70 and older;
- Residents age 65 or older;
- Older residents with high-risk medical condition;
- Residents of any age with two or more high-risk medical conditions;
- COVID-19 response personnel who have not yet been vaccinated;
- To be determined: Essential workers in areas such as food service, postal service, education, day care, public transit. Check back for final definitions.

PHASE 1C

IN PRIORITY ORDER,
STARTING MAY 2021:

- To be determined: Essential workers such as those in transportation, construction, finance, information technology, public safety. Check back for final definitions.

PHASE 2

IN PRIORITY ORDER,
STARTING JUNE 2021:

- All residents ages 16-64 who were not otherwise eligible in earlier phases.

HOW

As we are responding to a large number of inquiries, patients and community members with questions are urged to visit www.yorkhospital.com/vaccines for updated York Hospital vaccine clinic information, rather than calling the hospital. Our information comes to us at the direction of the Maine CDC and is posted on our website and updated regularly. The Maine CDC vaccine information and timeline website can also be accessed by visiting the York Hospital vaccines page.

 York Hospital
Safe, Trusted, Quality Care
15 Hospital Drive, York, ME • www.yorkhospital.com
(207) 351-2385 • info@yorkhospital.com